

Friday Homework

It is my position that weekends are family time, and I encourage students to relax, read, play, and enjoy fun activities. Usually, Fridays will not have new homework assigned. However, any long-term projects will require consistent work in order for them to be completed by the due date, and this may result in some weekend work at times. Also, if a student has been absent, or has refining work to do, weekend work may be necessary. Be sure to check this week's homework postings for any items that are coming up next week, like tests or prayer recitals. Also check the student assignment planner for important dates coming up and study in advance.

Have a nice, safe weekend! See you Monday!
