

Reading Log

Name: _____

Date: _____

First graders should be reading to a parent for at least ten minutes five nights a week. Parents can help students sound out words, explain new vocabulary, and ask comprehension questions about the text. This is a very meaningful experience for students. It's best to have students read sometime after school, not right before bed, as students may be tired and not enjoy the experience as much.

Day 1 I read to _____.

Day 2 I read to _____.

Day 3 I read to _____.

Day 4 I read to _____.

Day 5 I read to _____.

The best book I read this week was _____ because, _____
