

First Grade Visits UW

Holy Rosary's First Grade class got a glimpse into the world of higher education during their field trip to the Burke Museum and Suzallo Library at the University of Washington in Seattle. A highlight was peering at the 'biggest book in the world' at Suzallo - and a big thank you to Holy Rosary parent (and Executive Director of the UW Alumni Association) Paul Rucker for delivering the awesome Husky scarves and masks in Red Square!

