Estimados Padres,

Students at Holy Rosary have been learning about Day of the Dead (Día de los Muertos), a Catholic celebration in Mexico that occurs on November 1st and 2nd. The holiday is spread over two days: November 1 is Día de los Inocentes, honoring babies and children who have died and November 2 is Día de los Muertos, honoring adults who have died. Day of the Dead has roots in both Catholicism and Pre-Hispanic beliefs and during this time, family and friends welcome the return of deceased relatives and friends by preparing an altar with offerings of traditional foods and symbolic art. Families celebrate the lives of the deceased with food, drink, parties and activities the dead enjoyed in life. Students have been engaging in learning that exposes them to the exciting traditions that happen in Mexico during this time and the many elements of the altar. Every class is also working on an art project to contribute to our all-school altar. Students are invited to bring in a framed photo of a relative, friend or pet that has passed away to be honored on our altar. Please take time to come in and experience our altar which will be on display in our school cafeteria from October 28th-November 4th and see your child's contribution!

Gracias,

Señorita Parisa
